THE WOODCUT NOVEL: A TRIBUTE TO THE ART OF STORYTELLING,

by

David A. Beronä
(Plymouth State University, USA).

*David A. Beronä is a recognized scholar on woodcut novels and wordless books; he is the author of the book of important significance Wordless Books: The Original Graphic Novels (Abrams Books 2008). The lecture will highlight the history of novels in pictures and the influence of pioneers like Frans Masereel, Lynd Ward, and Helena Bochořáková – Tittrichová (among others) on the development of comic art, particularly contemporary graphic novels.*

The lecture will be on Wednesday, April 27, 2011, 3:00 p.m., in the lecture room „Freskový sál“ (at the Department of Journalism, Wurmova 7)
